Jesus went apart with His apostles, and the people followed Him into the desert place. They were as sheep without a shepherd. He had compassion on them. He re-
And He healed them. And when the day began to wear away, the disciples said unto Him: "Send the multitudes away, for we have no more but five loaves and two fishes." They were a-Prayerfully, He said: "Give them to eat, give them to eat." He blessed them and there was brake and they did eat and were filled. And there was brake and they did eat and were filled.
taken up of the fragments, that remained, twelve baskets.

With God our ev'-ry need is met, as Jesus proved for us that day, "given freely, without money, without price," if we turn to Him al-ways.
As we look to God, not man, boundless supply is there.

Accept what He has planned for us; trust in God who answers prayer, trust in God who hears and answers prayer.
